

IELTS Essay Questions April-June 2019

(PDF Series-II)

1. Nowadays, some parents pressure their children to be successful. What are the reasons for this? Is this a positive or negative development?
2. In some countries, people follow the latest fashion and hairstyles. In your opinion, what is influencing this? Is this a good or bad thing?
3. In many countries, people have health problems because they choose to live in unhealthy ways. What do you think the reasons for this and how can it be solved?
4. Some people think that books should be stopped in school and that videos, films and computers should be used instead. To what extent do you agree?
5. More and more developing countries are expanding their tourist industries. Why is this? Is it a positive development?
6. Around the world it is likely that more adults will work from home and more children will study from home as computer technology becomes cheaper and more accessible. Do you think it is a negative or a positive development?
7. Many families move to different countries. Some people think children can benefit from this, while others consider it is hard for children if families move to a foreign country. Discuss both views and your opinion.
8. In some countries, secondary schools aim to provide a general education with a range of subjects. In others, it has a narrow range of specific subjects so students can focus on their future career. What system is more appropriate in today's world.
9. There are fewer controls over the designs and construction of home and office buildings. So, people can build them however they like. Do the advantages of this outweigh the disadvantages ?
10. In some countries, there are many social problems involving teenagers. Some people say this is because parents spend much of their time at work and not at home. Do you agree or disagree?

LIZZ Education Academy, Kollam

IELTS | OET | PTE | CD-IELTS | MOH | HAAD | PROMETRIC | SPOKEN ENGLISH | NCLEX RN

<https://lizzacademy.com/>